●● About Me

My name is Sara Yousefi and my passion for drawing dates back to my childhood. So, I studied Graphic Design in high school and kept my major at university and I graduated from ALZAHRE University on 2015. During the years 2008 up to 2015, I learned painting and art design under the guidance of renowned Iranian painting masters Mr. MEHRDAD MOHEBALI.

In 2015, I entered the world of Sugar Art and after a while I created some work of art in seven different disciplines in the field of Sugar Art. Moreover, I won some medals at world level and I taught various subjects in Sugar Art. In addition, I worked as a judge in Iranian art competitions also, the new course which is called "from Idea to Implementation" was done in two forms including practical and theoretical classes for internal students and online for overseas pupils.
